

Croke Park Spectator Code of Conduct

To help protect you and your fellow supporters, and to assist our staff and stewards, you are kindly requested to follow the guidelines below in relation to the management of Covid-19 in Croke Park Stadium. This Spectator Code of Conduct is in addition to the existing Ground Regulations. Where a person is in breach of any of these guidelines, such person may be refused entry to, or ejected from the ground.

Before Arriving to the Stadium:

- Do not attend the match if you or any member of your household or social bubble have, or develop any symptoms of Covid-19, or, if you are self-isolating.
- You should self-assess your health based on your own age and susceptibility to infection and clinical vulnerability and those in your household or bubble. Please make yourself aware of the HSE guidelines here.
- Familiarise yourself with stadium policies and procedures available on the Croke Park website <http://www.crokepark.ie/welcomeback>. Share this information with people who are attending the match with you.
- Tickets are not transferable. You must not pass on or sell tickets to any other individual or group.
- Plan your journey to and from the stadium, for information on transport routes see <https://crokepark.ie/> and <https://www.transportforireland.ie/>
- Allow adequate time for entry procedures and familiarise yourself with your colour-coded entry route and entry times. This information will be on your ticket.

At the Stadium:

- The use of face coverings is recommended for all spectators over the age of 13 (including those who have been vaccinated) and should be used in all areas of the ground.
- Please observe social distancing and avoid close contact with others.
- Bring your own hand sanitiser and practice good hand hygiene. Adequate hand washing facilities will be available onsite.
- Please observe good respiratory etiquette; always cover your mouth / nose if needing to cough or sneeze.
- Remain in your allocated seat and keep movements around the stadium to a minimum.
- If you need to leave your seat, wait for a time when the aisle is clear and follow the signage and instructions of stewards.
- When accessing the facilities, please ensure you comply with stadium signage and instructions of the stewards. Please be patient and maintain a distance of two metres while queuing.
- Avoid hugs, handshakes and any close contact with those who are not in your social bubble.
- Be mindful of others when cheering, or celebrating.

After The Match:

- When leaving the stadium, move slowly and calmly to the nearest exit. Please follow the instructions of stewards, big screen, and PA announcements.
